In every country we have special festivals and ceremonies. Some of them are religious ceremonies and some of them are national. Today I want to talk about a religious festival in China, Chinese New Year is an important holiday in China. Chinese people hold this ceremony with their families. Family members get together and enjoy the full moon. In old China people worshipped the moon. These days, they bake a special cake named Mooncake. They spend time with their family members. The Chines clean their houses and wear new clothes to have good luck. They like to watch fireworks in the streets of their cities.

25- Chinese New Year is similar to Nowruz in Iran because

- 1) in both of them people go to the nature
- 2) in both of them people travel to other countries
- 3) in both of them people read poems
- 4) in both of them people wear new clothes
